Green Sea Turtle

Green sea turtles are very big! They have a hard shell on their back. They live in the ocean.

The green sea turtle likes to eat plants, like seaweed and sea grass. That is why they are green!

A female green sea turtle will lay about 115 eggs at a time! After two months, they break out of their shells using a special "egg tooth!"

Parts of a Plant

From the roots to the leaves, every part of a plant plays an important role. The three main parts of a plant are the roots, the stem, and the leaves. Most plants also make seeds.

Roots
Roots anchor plants into the ground so that they do not fall over. Roots of a plant absorb nutrients and water from the ground and transport them to the stem. Roots can also store nutrients for later.

Stem
Stems can vary from plant to plant. They can be soft, like a weed's stalk, or hard like a tree trunk. The stem holds the plant's leaves up to the sunlight. It also carries water and nutrients from the roots to the leaves and flowers.

Leaves
Leaves can come in many different shapes and sizes. They can have smooth or jagged edges. A plant's leaves are shaped to easily capture sunlight. The sunlight is used to make food for the plant.

Seeds
A seed is what starts a plant's life cycle. Most plants have flowers whose purpose is to produce seeds. A flower's color is called a petal that attracts bees and birds. The seeds are what grow into new plants. The stamen is the male part of the flower that makes pollen. The ovary is the female part of the flower that makes seeds.

CC4RL1- Refer to details and examples in a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text

CC4RL6- Compare and Contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first- and third-person narrations

CC4RI8- Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text

Author's Purpose

What is this skill? Author's purpose is the reason(s) the author has for writing. An author may write to persuade, to inform, to entertain, or to express ideas and feelings. The kinds of ideas in the text and the way the author organizes and states these ideas can help you determine the author's purpose.

Why is this important? Understanding the author's purpose helps good readers determine what information is important to understanding the text. Good readers determine author's purpose in order to understand the author's biases and how those biases affect the text.
